I would like to address this true apology to Mr. McGonigle, Mrs. Fries, and family. I am in deep regret and I am very sorry. I wish I could take back my actions, but I know that's not possible. I understand now that words do have an effect on people. I messed up, I said stupid things while running my mouth. I don't expect forgiveness, but I do hope we can put this behind us someday.

Sincerely,
